

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: As a high school sophomore, Amiya Bowles is a proven tennis champion, and a force to be reckoned with on the court; and,
- WHEREAS: After finishing her 2022 inaugural high school tennis season as the first girls tennis state champion for Bexley High School in 40 years, she delivered a second outstanding season as a sophomore in 2023; and,
- WHEREAS: At the 2023 OHSAA girls state tennis tournament, Amiya secured her second consecutive singles championship, earning the distinction of being one of eleven repeat winners in state history; and,
- WHEREAS: Amiya is a joy to watch on the court, and our City is proud of her hard work and stellar performance. We warmly congratulate her on this tremendous achievement and look forward to seeing the great things that will come next season.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ben Kessler, Mayor of the City of Bexley, Ohio, proudly honor and celebrate Amiya Bowles for her second consecutive girls tennis championship, and do hereby name the week of November 27, 2023 as:
