

ADMINISTRATION & DEVELOPMENT

DIRECTOR'S UPDATE | JANUARY 2024

Meyer's Month in Review

- First day: January 2 - thank you for the warm welcome!
- Introductory meetings with Bexley Library and Schools communications teams; Planning to meet on a quarterly basis, inviting communication team members from various Bexley community organizations
- Attending weekly internal communications team meetings, assisting with Bexley Blast and website content, and drafting Winter 2024 Bexley Times Newsletter, going to print this week
- Regular meetings with Bexley Chamber Executive Director; Assisting in development of Black History Month street light pole banner program
- Development meetings with local builders, property managers and prospective businesses (e.g. Katalina's)
- Attending monthly Land Use Strategy Commission and Community Improvement Corporation (CIC) meetings; Will provide staff assistance to both groups moving forward; Developing Land Use Strategy Community Survey
- Stood in for Sustainability Coordinator at January Environmental Sustainability Advisory Committee meeting
- Initial meeting with City Engineer to begin planning for the development of a 10-Year Capital Improvement Program (CIP) specific to water and sewer improvement projects
- Ongoing involvement with Ohio City/County Management Association (OCMA); Member of Conference Planning Committee (February 28-March 1)
- Assisted in drafting ORD 04-24 - Proposed Livingston Avenue Zoning Code Update

On the Horizon

- More on-boarding!
- Land Use Strategy Online Survey (Online) - Coming soon
- Ohio Department of Development Local Incentive (CRA) Annual Reports Due in March
- 2200 East Main Street - Upcoming ARB (January 31), TPGC (February 21) and BZAP (February 22) meetings
- Public Hearing for ORD 04-24 (February 13)
- Updating online GIS Zoning Map
- Planning for 2024 State of the Community (Save the Date for March 7 at St. Charles)
- Engaging with MORPC's Transit Supportive Infrastructure (TSI) Subcommittee and other LinkUs Initiatives