

Environmental Sustainability Advisory Committee Meeting Agenda December 19, 2023

1. Call to Order
2. Roll Call of Members
 1. Lori Ann, Jay, Lisa, Natalie, Matthew, Corey, Elizabeth, online: Joanne, Rebecca, Rachel, Addison
3. Discussion of 2024 Calendar and Community Engagement
 - a. See the file attached to this email for the visual guide to this discussion.
 1. Goals for next year
 1. Corey will work on a bike to school/work event
 2. Engagement: schools with Elizabeth,
 3. Have a theme for Sustainable September—Idle free in 2024 and also integrate this with biking. Create a competition. Can Bexley Celebrations and Events help?
 4. Have a signature event, including a competition
 5. Bolster marketing → testimonials
 6. Scope and sequence of what all students are learning about
 - b. ESAC Members in 2024
 1. Looking for more representatives from Capital next year or volunteers.
 2. Looking for more engagement with BHS going forward.
 3. Each institution will do its own outreach for new members and there is an opportunity to do joint outreach
 4. Discussion about targeting a wider audience
 1. At BHS, there is a feeling that those who would like to be involved are already involved; there is already visibility.
 2. At CSG, Corey has little faith in longevity of clubs and make sure there is a through line to multiple grades.
 3. Lisa would like to invite Lisa Moore to join and touch base with Mr. Logsdon about adult engagement fostering student engagement
 4. If there is a group, Addison suggests that the group be action oriented.
 5. There was discussion about incentives/service hours/something to do at BHS and St. Charles
 6. Should engagement be on its own or piggy back on another event?
 7. Are there opportunities for parent engagement or teacher engagement to share with a large audience?

Sustainability discussion as part of the Mayor's quarterly roundtable with community leaders in the spring.

8. Discussion about things in the Blast (we put what we can but try not to overwhelm) and ESAC members are welcome to share Green Bexley Facebook posts.
 - c. Restaurant Email survey - who wants to help and how does the survey look? link to the survey:
