Substance Abuse Town Hall Meeting Set for September 12

The substance abuse town hall will discuss substance abuse in general, and the opiate crisis specifically. Participants in the 60-Minute documentary on Central Ohio's opiate epidemic will serve as panelists, and the Ohio Attorney General will be present for the town hall meeting. The meeting will be held at Capital University, and is being organized cooperatively by the Ohio AG, The City of Bexley, Bexley Schools, the Franklin County Sheriff, and Jewish Family Services.

TIRC and CRA Housing Council met – approved continuation of incentives based on review of 2015

New police officers sworn in

Welcome Officers Donovan, Fleming, and Lauer to the Bexley PD force. Fleming and Lauer will go directly to FTO program, while Donovan will be attending police academy prior to commencing FTO.

Giant Eagle Market District now open

Bexley's hometown grocery store is open and it's fabulous. Go grab some fresh groceries!

MORPC Releasing 2015 Crash Data Later this Week

No Bexley intersections in top 100 list – however, some intersections near us are. Those intersections include Broad/James, Alum Creek Dr/Livingston, James/Livingston. Data will be publicly released later this week.

Bexley and Capital University both back in session

Safe and smooth return to school for both Bexley and Capital.

Congrats to Bexley Rec on another great Splish, Splash, and Dash

Record participants and a great tweak on format of event – lots of good feedback.

Labor Day Block Party is coming up September 4

Any volunteers to help with cookout or other aspects of festivities?
