

Mayor's City Council Update

September 13, 2016

Key Updates:

Ohio GreenEggfest @ Jeffrey Park on September 24

Cookoff Teams Compete September 24, 10:30 am - 3:30 pm at Jeffrey Park

The Ohio Eggfest is a Central Ohio based celebration of family, food and everything Big Green Egg! It's bragging rights for the cook team that takes home the Popular Vote Award; it's legendary status for the cook team that takes home the Very Prestigious Award, Award; it's a day full of family, friends, and food that would make celebrity chefs reconsider their collective lives' work! 100% of proceeds from the Eggfest benefit cancer research at the James through the Buckeye Cruise for Cancer organization. Attendees will get to sample food from competing teams, and enjoy live music, activities, and a beer and wine tent. Tickets are $25 for tasters. The event is September 24, 2016, but don't worry... the Eggheads planning this event know what they're doing – they have cleverly scheduled around Ohio State Football's lone bye week of the 2016 season! Zika Virus Presentation on September 15

7:00 pm, September 15, Huntington Recital Hall @ Capital University

Ever wondered what the Zika virus really is? Have you ever worried if you and your family are at risk of this disease? Join Capital University and the CDC's Zika Virus Task Force's leading physician, Dr. Bruce Bernard, to bust the myths and get the real facts on the Zika virus. Dr. Bernard has been involved in multiple global public health initiatives, such as H1N1 influenza, West Nile Virus, and Ebola. Bring your friends and loved ones to get your questions answered on Thursday, September 15, at 7 pm in Huntington Recital Hall, Conservatory of Music, Capital University. Event sponsored by Capital University Provost's Office and the Bexley Wellness Fund of the Bexley Community Foundation.
