Your comment to the Bexley City Council: "The City of Bexley recognizes that institutional racism and discrimination exist" I'm just curious, if we are to vote that this exists, then who of you are to blame? Which of you will fall on your swords to say that you propagated racists policies. I'd like to know so that I won't vote against those of you who aren't racist in the upcoming election. If none of you did, then can you tell me which city administrator did? If the answer is "none of the above," then why are we voting on this? I take it as an offense that this blame is being shared by the community, when I myself have never acted in such a way. If the council is, please let me know who I should fire. If it is, as I suspect, that none of you are, then please let the community know that no institutional racism currently EXISTS (present tense) in this community. If this is political, you should all be ashamed for letting the accusation stand. Meanwhile we have plenty of crime of occurring on the Livingston Avenue corridor. I welcome solutions that have nothing to do with race like speed cameras, speed bumps, and DUI checkpoints. To be honest I find you all in dereliction of duty when we have the crime we do in south Bexley.
