Your comment to the Bexley City Council: Mayor Kessler and Members of Council. It was more than gratifying and heartening tonight to witness Bexley lead - yet again - on the issue of kids' health. Indeed you had your parents' hats on tonight, and your teachers' hats, and kids' hats - even your retailers' hats. This, of course, is no magic bullet. Up against a hundred billion dollar industry and one of the toughest addictions in the world, we have to work around the edges, chiseling away the char here and there. Thanks to Bexley's (and others) leadership, virtually no one smokes in a public place or workplace. Thanks to Bexley's (and other's) leadership there's a fulsome recognition that those deep sections of kids brains that change so fast need to be protected by enforcing underage sales and limiting seductive products. Great progress has been made, but this is an innovative and lucrative industry. It takes a village of leadership to stand up to it. Thank you, thank you, thank you, thank you.
