Hi,
I would like to request that crosswalk lines be added to the N Cassady stop sign spot going from both corners. I walk every morning, and I typically cross in front on the sign where there aren't lines, and yesterday morning a car was barreling through that stop sign, and then he rolled down his window to yell at me that there isn't a crosswalk there. Not only is it scary to be a woman walking alone when it's dark out, but for a man to think it's okay to do that is unacceptable. I'm sure I'm not the only person this has happened to, and it could easily be remedied if there were lines there as well. This would hopefully encourage drivers to actually stop at that sign instead of breezing through it.

Thank you
