First I would like to say that thank you for having a means for people to reach out and have a voice, I'm sending this message in regards to me being a loyal Bexley resident for over 13 years now due to my hard work ethic and dedication to help my kids and grandkids grow, but now it's come to the point where I've had to relocate to a apartment from a house I rented on Columbus Street cause the owner sold it and I invested a lot of time in money into that home, it's hurtful for my wife and I to move I work very hard and loved the community this is wrong and there's nothing I can do about it because I didn't own the house very sad 13 years with no late or incident but good to all and now this, I thought this was a community of love and empowerment for the working class. Thank you
