to the Bexley
City Council::
Dear City Manager, and Council members,
As a long time resident, I have been following the efforts of Columbus trying to remedy the lack of housing (especially affordable) in Franklin County cities and suburbs.
Mayor Ginther suggests that the region needs to build 20,000 housing units at all price points per year to meet the demand. Ginther recently announced the formation of a regional housing coalition that will include local governments, businesses and nonprofits to evaluate how to maintain housing affordability in central Ohio.
I was wondering if and how your city is planning to participate in this development effort.
Thanks for your feedback.
Best Regards,

Mark Dylan
