Whereas, the Auditor of the City of Bexley, Ohio, being the fiscal officer thereof, has on file in his office a list containing the names of the owners of each parcel of land in said City which has been certified delinquent three years or more on which there are delinquent special assessments, together with a tax duplicate description of each parcel and the amount exclusive of penalties, due and unpaid at the close of June, 1939 tax collection on each and every original special assessment on each parcel; and

Whereas, bonds have been issued in anticipation of the collection of said special assessments and all of the annual or semi-annual serial bond maturities which are due and which were issued in anticipation of the collection of said special assessments, have been paid and retired, and therefore it is not necessary to refund any bonds in order to reassess the aforesaid due and unpaid part of the installments of such special assessments, and

Whereas, the Council of the City of Bexley, being the taxing authority for said city, has the power to authorize the reassessment of all delinquent special assessments by virtue of Section 2293-5j, of the General Code of Ohio, NOW, THEREFORE: BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEXLEY, STATE OF OHIO:

Said reassessment shall extend for a period not to exceed ten (10) years from the date of the first installment of said reassessment, which by law may commence at the tax paying period immediately following the tax payment period at which the last installment of the original assessment is due; provided, however, that no reassessment period shall extend longer than fifteen years from the date of said reassessment; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That each reassessment shall bear interest at the rate of two (2) per cent from the date of said reassessment, and shall be payable in substantially equal semi-annual installments; and that notice shall be published for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Bexley that such reassessment has been prepared by the fiscal officer and that it is on file in his office for the inspection and examination of persons interested therein, as provided in Section 2293-5j of the General Code.
