

ORDINANCE NO. 18-43

By Mr. Kurtz

Providing for refund of balance of monies deposited by Wallace F. Ackley and Frederick Schiefer for deposit for cost of alley improvement.

Whereas, on the 14th day of October, 1941 this Council adopted Resolution No. 21-41, finding it necessary to improve the first alley east of Chelsea Avenue from Main Street to Charles Street in co-operation with the Work Projects Administration, in which resolution it was recited that it was represented that there would be paid into the Treasury by and on behalf of the owners of the lots and lands bounding and abutting upon the east side of said proposed improvement prior to the letting of a contract for materials for said improvement, and prior to the commencement of any work upon said improvement, such sums of money, to be estimated by the engineers, as would pay for that portion of the work which would be attributable to and assessible against the following lots and lands bounding and abutting said improvement upon the east side thereof, to-wit: being all the lots on the east side of said improvement from Main Street to and including the 7th lot south of Astor Avenue, under an agreement to be entered into whereby said funds should be used for the purchase of materials for and to pay expenses of said improvement, and that said improvement should not be undertaken unless and until said funds were so paid into the City Treasury, and providing that that part of said cost apportioned to the lots lying upon the east side of said improvement between the above points should be payable out of the amounts therein provided to be deposited in the City Treasury for that purpose, and any excess over and above such sums so apportioned to said lots to be refunded to the persons making such deposits, which said deposits were required by council by reason of the fact that said lots were outside the corporate limits of the City of Bexley, and

Whereas, there was on the 18th day of February, 1942 paid into the City Treasury for the above purpose the following sums by the following persons, to-wit: Frederick Schiefer $225.00, to apply on the costs apportioned to lot No. 1 of Bexley Annex, and Wallace F. Ackley $2775.00, to apply upon the amount apportioned to all other lots between Main Street and the 7th lot south of Astor Avenue, being the amounts estimated by the engineers for said purposes, and whereas, such legislation and proceedings were had that said improvement was made in accordance with said resolution of necessity and the costs of said improvement which would have been properly assessible or apportioned against the lots and lands hereinabove described lying on the east side of said improvement between Main Street to and including the 7th lot south of Astor Avenue, had said lots been within the corporate limits, have been by the engineers and the assessing board determined as follows, to-wit:
